

Rocket Man, burning up the ivories for Children's Circle of Care.

FROM SIR, WITH LOVE

Elton John hit Boston for a command performance at a Children's Circle of Care fundraiser for North America pediatric hospitals.

The rock icon took to the stage for a private concert to honor benefactors who help save children's lives, at the Westin Boston Waterfront Hotel on May 3. Sir Elton expressed his gratitude to the audience of 1,400 at the Children's Circle of Care gala, hosted by Children's Hospital Boston, saying, "These people are the real heroes in my life." Performing at the request of Children's Hospital Trust board member and Harrah's CEO Gary Loveman, John pulled out all the favorites, including "Tiny Dancer," "Bennie and the Jets," and "Your Song." —RACHEL BOWIE

PLUS: Acclaimed chick-lit author Jill Kargman visits Boston to celebrate the release of her first solo novel, Momzillas.

Corinne and Wyc Grousbeck.

Children's Hospital Trust Board member and Harrah's CEO Gary Loveman with Children's Hospital Trust board member Joel Cutler and his wife, Randi.

“ It's a real privilege to be here among so many special people who do so many incredible things for children. These people are the real heroes in life. ”

—ELTON JOHN

Elton John.

HIS GIFT IS HIS SONG

WHAT: Children's Hospital Boston played host to the Children's Circle of Care Gala, featuring a private performance by Elton John.

WHO: Bob and Myra Kraft, Jonathan and Patti Kraft, Steve Karp, Jim Pallotta, Wyc and Corinne Grousbeck, Gary Loveman, Paul and Ashley Berman, Roy and Ginny MacDowell, Rob and Cathy Griffin, Cory and Deedee Griffin.

WHERE: The Westin Boston Waterfront Hotel

WHEN: May 3, 2007

Jim Pallotta.

Children's Hospital Boston CEO Sandra Fenwick.

Johnathan and Patti Kraft with New England Patriots owner Robert Kraft.