SPOTLIGHT ON

Sarah Rafferty

As Donna, executive assistant extraordinaire on USA Network's drama Suits, Sarah boasts a killer wardrobe. Offscreen, the actress and mom of two, who splits time between L.A. and Toronto—where the show films—likes to keep things casual. (“I’m not wearing five-inch heels in the carpool line!” she laughs.) Get to know the Connecticut native once and for all.

WEEKEND WEAR My summer uniform is a dress. I also have a closet full of hats. I’m a redhead, so sunscreen is a must. The shade is great with a hat!

HIDDEN TALENT I still have some synchronized swimming moves in my back pocket from camp when I was 8. I can really wow people at a pool party!

DATE NIGHT My husband and I will do hot yoga or hike. Then we’ll go out to dinner, where we can actually talk without being interrupted. That’s like winning.

SOCIAL LOVE I like Instagram because it makes me stop to take in the world. The other day I got to work just as the sun was coming up. It was breathtaking, so I took a picture and shared it. It’s a way to post what you’re grateful for.

CITY PRIDE Toronto is an amazing place to be as a family. My daughters are 7 and 3. There’s so much stuff for kids to do! It’s a very eco-friendly city—everyone’s riding bikes, eating farm-to-table food.

PERFECT SUNDAY I love when my husband [who’s from Finland] gets up before me and makes Finnish pancakes—essentially crêpes. He’ll make them for the girls, then I get up and make coffee. That’s perfect.
